It was just a year ago on January 9, 1955 that the present Taylor Stake Presidency was reorganized, this being due to the death of the President J. H. Walker. The names of this executive body presented for approval were J. Golden Snow as President, with J. Orvin Hickman and Rulon H. Dahl as counsellors and William A. Anderson as Stake Clerk and William W. Canadian Players To Present "Macbeth" Here Wednesday, February 1st

Excitement is mounting as the time draws nearer when the Canadian Players will present their play "MacBeth" to Drama lovers here in Southern Alberta.

From across the border and in Eastern Canada comes glowing reports of the artistry of this talented troupe. From Herbert Whittaker, Drama Critic of the Globe and Mail, who is personally known to me and whose opinion I respect says this "I have seen three Macbeths within the last month, Sir Lawrence Olivier's at Stratford on Avon, the C. B. C.'s masterly television on production, and the Canadian Players at Simcoe. Without hesitation I can say that the last named was easily the one which most deeply moved me as an audience."

From Rochester N. Y. Drama Critic A. J. Warner said "Thank you for a great Dramatic experience."

Other superlatives such as "Magnificent from the Burlington Times and Vermont Daily News, and a "superb production" from the Trade Paper Variety. These are the comments that have followed the Company wherever they have gone.

Often the most fascinating stories of Theatrical Productions are about the props. For Macbeth it was necessary to find eight light weight, well balanced swords for the fighting scenes. The quest for swords ended just outside Stratford in a small factory which stamps out parts for automobiles. It was here that the Canadian Players found factory owner Paul Jones highly interested in making swords hand forged to specifications. Mr. Jones's father used to build stage coaches to order and like a true son, Paul took up the Canadian Player's challenge.

Margaret Rodeback And Max Fairbanks Wed

A wedding of interest took place in the Alberta Temple on Wednesday, January 4th when Margaret, the second daughter of Mrs. Mary and the late William Rodeback, became the bride of Max Fairbanks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Czar Fairbanks all of Raymond.

A reception was held in the Stake House where many friends came to offer their best wishes to the happy couple.

Receiving the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fairbanks, Mr. and Mrs. Asiel Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kenney and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Karren of Medicine Hat.

Beatrice Rodeback was in charge of the Guest Book with Mona and Geraldine Palmer taking care of and arranging the many beautiful gifts which were presented the young couple.

The bride was beautiful in a gown of white nylon net and lace oversatin. The fitted bodice was lovely with a net yoke decorated with seed pearls, and lily point sleeves. The bouffant lace skirt was designed with tiers. A white satin bandeau trimmed with sequins held the fingertip veil of illusion net in place. She carried a bouquet of red roses and white carnations in her arms.

Attending the bride as Maid of honor was her sister, Barbara, dressed in a semi-formal gown of pastel pink lace over taffeta.

Mary, another sister, was bridesmaid and chose a semi-formal gown of white nylon net and lace over satin with a sprinkling of mauve flowers decorating the skirt. She wore a mauve stole for accent. Both girls carried colonial nosegays of baby mums and roses. The flower girls Lorraine and Rebecca Rodeback were lovely in pastel yellow gowns and Laureen Karren from Medicine Hat a niece of the groom, was dressed in ice blue taffeta. These girls carried a nosegay of baby mums and roses.

The best man was Delbert Gough. The bride's mother wore a dress of rose lace and crepe with a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Fairbanks chose a navy crepe dress with a corsage of red roses and pink rose buds. The three tiered wedding cake flanked by pastel pink tapers was in a beautiful setting of pink and white tulle decorated with delicate pink bows.

A bright smile can light up a person's face and add greatly to his or her attractiveness but not if the teeth are crooked or neglected or dull. To ensure dental health, dental care should start in early childhood. Three years of age is the best time to start visits to the dentist. The first teeth are often affected by dental caries, even at this early age, but if they are kept in repair, the condition of the permanent set will be very much better. Make brushing the teeth a regular practice as soon as the child is able to handle his toothbrush. This should be done immediately after eating, to remove all food particles that could form destructive acids.

HOW ... DOES A STRONG FINANCIAL SERVICE Sell Clothes?

It is a well-worn, nevertheless true statement that "the world is shrinking!" Modern means of transport have brought nation closer to nation . . . village nearer to city. No longer do rural families lag behind the times. Rural Albertans are, in the main, as well educated and as smartly dressed as their city cousins. To keep abreast with the times, country clothing stores must carry wide stocks of fashion goods, along with serviceable working garments.

To do this, it is frequently necessary for the store-owner to enlist the aid of a sound financial institution, such as the Provincial Treasury Branches. Drafts, loans, current accounts, money orders, safety deposit boxes are just a few of the many services supplied by our organization. We would welcome the opportunity to prove our usefulness to your business. Why not visit our nearest branch, and have a friendly chat with the manager?

School Report

We have now completed the first two weeks of the New Year and if any of us have made any New Year's resolutions, they have probably been broken by now. For those students in grades seven through twelve, a special list of re-organized Ten Commandments has been issued in the Nov. World Affairs, which would double as a good list for us to follow. Here they are:

1. Don't let your parents down. They've brought you up.
2. Stop and think before you drink.
3. Be smart, obey. You'll give orders yourself someday.
4. Ditch dirty thoughts fast or else they'll ditch you.

If all of us could, or would, govern ourselves according to these rules, we would all have a very successful year. At least we could give it a try!

Before their daughter Patricia returned to Provo where she is attending the BYU, a family dinner was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Strong, with about thirty-eight members present to visit and enjoy the bounteous supper prepared by the hostess. Out of town guests came from Lethbridge, Grassy Lake and Mountain View.

Pat is enjoying her work at the BYU very much, where she is majoring in music and education.

Pat belongs to a ladies quartet which has been very successful. Last June 'The Sophmores' as they are called, went on a singing tour making appearances in twenty-five of the United States. This is a competitive affair and the Sophmores won the Trophy, a beautiful gold cup. This quartet does singing commercial for many companies and for varied products. They also appear on radio and television. They plan on making another long tour this summer.

Our talented Miss was also the Chairman for the Christmas Assembly Program for the 'Preferred Man' Club, for which Pat wrote the script as well as direct it. She also wrote an original song which was used on the program.

We are always glad to hear of the success of our young people.

The grape, according to historians was the earliest fruit to be cultivated. Grape seeds, estimated to be at least 3,000 years old, have been found in Egyptian tombs.

On the evening of Sunday, January 8th after the L. D. S. Conference sessions, a group of friends surprised Bill and Gerlie Fairbanks at their home, the occasion being the Fairbanks' 25th wedding anniversary.

A delightful evening was spent visiting and watching T. V. The honored guests were presented with a gift of silver.

A very delicious lunch, which was brought in by the ladies, was served.
